Serving Western Washington
Since 1991

Our clients include government agencies, multi-practice firms, more focused mid-size firms, sole practitioners and pro se individuals. We handle everything from multiple filings in different courts, to coordinating service upon multiple defendants in a single action, to delivery of a personalized teddy bear to a brand new mother.

We have clients who call us several times each day, each week and some who call us just a few times a year.

We have no minimum monthly fees and no standard monthly charges, so use us as much or as little as you like. Setting up an account is easy. Just call with your phone number, address and contact name. We'll put you in our system and be at your office before you know it.

Here's what one of our long time Seattle Legal clients had to say about us;

"Seattle Legal knows its clients needs and takes care of them in a professional, yet personal manner that makes each client feel as though they're receiving preferred service. However, this preferred service is the norm for Seattle Legal. When I use Seattle Legal, I know I'm working with a messenger service that is professional and totally reliable - one that is always there to serve my needs in a responsible and competent manner. Thanks Guys!"
